

At ASAS, we are committed to be your preferred learning partner.

Since 2013, the Arium School of Arts & Sciences (ASAS) has collaborated with ISCOS for the latter's Mentoring Programme for Reformative Trainees (young adult ex-offenders), and mentoring of ex-offenders' children under the Yellow Ribbon Fund-ISCOS Fairy Godparent Programme (FGP).

ISCOS
INDUSTRIAL & SERVICES CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY LTD

The Yellow Ribbon Fund-ISCOS Fairy Godparent Programme (FGP) is a children's education & family support initiative. It aims to break the cycle of inter-generational offending and help ex-offenders' children from low-income families to attain their academic potential.

Achieve Academic

Family Support

As a specialist in American education, we are pleased to assist you in your search for quality and affordable educational programs. We offer students a wide range of educational opportunities by collaborating with accredited colleges and universities from the United States, ensuring academic excellence and quality.

